THE TRANSPORTATION OF FOOD TO IRELAND.

A memorial from Iowa, praying that transportation be furnished for food to Ireland, having been presented, Mr. Edmunds suggested that a freight vessel be hired as a far cheaper method of transportation than a man-a-war. In answer to a question from Mr. Davis, Mr. Edmunds said that he would vote to pay the expense of chartering a vessel. Mr. Thurman agreed with Mr. Edmunds that the most expensive way of transporting food would be in a naval vessel.

THE KANSAS ELECTION CASE.

The Committee on Privileges and Elections reported on the charges of bribery and corruption in connection with the action of of Senator Ingalls. The majority and minority of the committee exonerate Mr. Ingalls but the majority asserts that bribery and corruption were employed, although it was not proved that Mr. Ingalls authorized it.

THE WORLD'S FAIR OF 1883.

The Senate Committee on Finance this morning agreed to report favorably on Mr. Kernan's bill recognizing the New York Exposition of 1883 and providing that articles for exhibition only should be admitted free of duty.

THE REFUNDING SCHEMES.

The Committee on Ways and Means this morning discussed the details of the Funding bill. They determined to reduce the rate of interest on temporary certificates from four to three and a half per cent., in order to make it correspond with the interest on the bonds.

NATIONAL CAPITAL NOTES.

Senator Ferry said today that he was quite sure ex-Congressman Trowbridge, of Detroit, would be appointed Commissioner of Indian affairs.

The House Committee on Rules are very much disgusted at the way their carefully prepared report has been mutilated by the House, and had a meeting at the rooms of Congressman Stephens last evening to consult as to the proper course to secure a reconsideration of the action taken by the House in some matters.

PARNELL AND THE DEMOCRATS.

Some of the Congressmen, and among others, Speaker Randall, who took so conspicuous a part in welcoming Parnell to the Capitol, and securing him the hall of Representatives to speak in, an honor that has never been conferred to such a man as Parnell before, are very much disgusted at certain developments, which they think indicate that Parnell's mission to this country is more for his own political advantage than for the relief of the suffering in Ireland. If Parnell shall come to Washington again he will receive a very different reception.

ADAMS'S TRIUMPH.

Three of the Meeker Murderers Captured.

LOS PINOS AGENCY, Col., Feb. 17.—Promptly at the expiration of the ten days, as promised, Jack rode up to the Agency with three of the twelve persons demanded by the government. Chief Douglas, The Johnson and Thomas. Jack is very reticent and declines to state how or in what manner the capture was effected. Sowerick returned several hours late, but brought no prisoners, and Jack assured General Adams that owing to the depth of snow on the mountains and the scattered location of the camps, it would take at least three weeks to capture the remaining nine prisoners. Chief Johnson, one of the prisoners demanded by the Commission, sent his regrets at being unable to accompany the party to Washington, giving as a reason that he was a medicine man and had a very sick patient, whom he could not leave.

Jack insists that the women were mistaken in the names of certain Indians who they testified were present at the time of the outbreak. Douglas is ill at ease and extremely nervous, and says but little. The military preparations for the protection of the prisoners are complete. The Indians are confident of a peaceable settlement of the existing difficulties. All is quiet here. General Adams leaves tomorrow with the prisoners for Washington via Fortress Garland. Pending negotiations at Washington require his presence, and will not admit of any further delay.

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Encyclical Letter Against Divorce.

ROME, Feb. 17.—The Latin text of the Papal encyclical against divorce fills twelve columns of the Osservatore Romano. It argues in favor of the removal of the rite of marriage from all civil jurisdiction whatsoever. It traces the history of marriage from patriarchial to Catholic times, and declares Christ elevated it to a sacrament, which only His Church can administer. The attempt made under various guises by the modern spirit of irreligion to rob the Church of her right either to bind or loose marriage ties must be resisted by the whole Catholic world. His Holiness indicates the conditions whereunder separations of husband and wife may be sanctioned by the Church, and concludes with an exhortation to the universal episcopate to communicate his teaching to the faithful for their welfare in both worlds.

CONDITION OF THE AMERICAN MINISTER TO PORTUGAL.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—It is stated that Benj. Moran, American Minister to Portugal, is in a very helpless condition in consequence of a paralytic seizure some time ago, and it is feared he must abandon his post.

THE CZAR'S ANNIVERSARY.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—As far as the health of the Empress will permit, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Czar's accession to the throne will be celebrated in the same manner as the twenty-fifth anniversary of his predecessor, Nicholas, in 1850. The Prince and Princess of Bulgaria have arrived at St. Petersburg to participate in the Czar's fête.

Private accounts from St. Petersburg represent the condition of the Empress as very unfavorable, indeed, almost critical.

STEAMER CANOPUS HAS A BAD TRIP.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The steamer Canopus, which arrived at Liverpool yesterday from Boston, lost her boats and 247 head of cattle, and sustained other damages in the heavy weather.

ATTEMPT TO REDUCE THE COST OF PRINTING PAPER.

The New Orleans Publishers.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 17.—Owing to the remarkable increase in the price of printing paper, the proprietors of newspapers in New Orleans assembled at the office of the Picayune, Tuesday evening, and the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Representatives of Louisiana in Congress be, and they are hereby, earnestly requested to use their influence to have the duty on printing paper, chemicals and materials used in its manufacture removed or materially reduced.

FROM RUSSIA.

ATTEMPT TO KILL THE WHOLE IMPERIAL FAMILY.

Explosion of a Mine in the Palace.—Five Soldiers Killed and Thirty-five Wounded.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg says there has been an abortive attempt made to kill the Imperial family by laying a mine in the winter palace. Five soldiers were killed and thirty-five wounded.

A later dispatch from St. Petersburg reports that the mine was laid immediately under the guard-room which is under the dining-hall. Owing to an accidental delay, the imperial family had not entered the latter at the usual time. The explosion made a hole in the floor of the dining-room ten feet long and six feet wide.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The explosion occurred yesterday at just about the usual dinner hour of the imperial family.

THE COST OF RAISING CORN.

It is still a question with many whether or not it pays in New England to raise corn. As we have said before that depends on whether we raise a large or small crop per acre. The following experiment, as reported in the Country Gentleman some time since, throws light on the subject. The writer says:

We send you the following experiment which we have tried with crops of corn. The area was eight and one fourth acres, on one of our stony hills. It had been cropped formerly with buckwheat and oats, but for the last five years had been in pasture, but had never been manured. In the spring we picked the stones and broke the soil four inches deep and cropped as follows:

Plowing	$15 00	Crop—50 bushels of ears per acre (half soft corn), 412 bush. ears; 103 bush's sound corn, at 75 c.	$77 25
Harrowing	5 50	103 bushels soft corn at 30 c.	30 90
Marking	2 50	10 tons of stalks at $5	50 00
Planting	7 50
Cultivating twice	22 00
Hoeing	20 00
Cut'g & shock'g	7 50
Husking	21 50
Draw'g & cribb'g	6 50
Seed	2 00
Exp. labor & seed	$110 00		$158 15
Use of land	50 00	Loss	1 85
	$160 00		$160 00

We did not find this profitable farming, but thought we would try again; so in the spring of 1876 we planted the same piece of land again and manured as follows:

115 loads of barn manure	$115.00
1,400 lbs. superphosphate	28.00
60 bushels tan-bark ashes	6.00
	$149.00

Plowing	$12.50	Crop—621 bushels ears (all sound & no soft corn) will shell 41½ bushels, at 55 cents	$305.38
Harrowing	6.50	20 tons of stalks, at $5	100.00
Marking	2.50	Half manure left in land	74.50
Planting	8.00
Cultivating twice	22.00
Hoeing	20.00
Sowing phos. & ash.	4.00
Cutting up	10 25
Husking	28.50
Drawing & cribbing	9.25
Seed	2.00
Labor and seed	$122.50		$479.88
Manure	149.00
Use of land	50.00	Cost of crop	321.50
	$321.50	Net profits	$158.38

From this experiment we infer that raising corn without plenty of fertilizers is a failure so far as profit is concerned, but with them a success.

If people want cheap newspapers, let them beseech Congress to remove the duty on the chemicals used in the manufacture of print paper. Print-paper can be bought in Canada today at about three cents per pound cheaper than in the states. This is because of free chemicals in that country. But there is an American duty on foreign print-paper of twenty per cent., so that the cheapness of the article abroad is of no avail here. If we in this country could have chemicals free of duty, the American paper maker would be able to beat the foreigners very materially in the price at which he could sell.

Turkey, lately scourged by war, is the prey of famine. If in any American cities fifteen persons should be found in one day dead of starvation a thrill of horror would run through the nation, but as the city where this has occurred is Adrianople few notice it.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

JANUARY SESSION AT PROVIDENCE.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, Feb. 17.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock by Gov. Van Zandt.

Mr. Tillinghast reported from the judiciary committee an act amending Chap. 508 of the Public Laws, concerning forms that may be used in prosecutions under Sections 18 and 19 of said chapter. The main object of the act, said Mr. Tillinghast, is to provide forms which will be deemed sufficient in making complaints and warrants against persons charged with selling liquor in violation of law. Heretofore it has been difficult to draw warrants and complaints not open to technical objections. The act establishes forms that seem to meet the difficulty, and simply gives additional machinery to enable officers to enforce the present liquor law.

After a little discussion the act was read by sections and adopted as follows:

Section first gives the forms of complaint and warrant. The other sections of the act are:

SEC. 2. No negative allegations of any kind need be averred or proved in any complaint under said chapter 508; and evidence of the sale or keeping for sale of any intoxicating liquor, shall be prima facie evidence that the said sale or keeping for sale is unlawful; but the respondent in any such complaint may show any license or authority to sell, or any other fact that would render a sale or keeping for sale lawful, by way of defence.

SEC. 3. All of the liquors mentioned in said Sections 18 and 19 of said Chapter 508, shall be considered intoxicating liquors within the meaning of this chapter.

SEC. 4. It shall not be necessary to prove an actual sale of intoxicating liquors in any building, shop, saloon, place or tenement in order to establish the fact that intoxicating liquors are there kept for sale: but the notorious character of any such premises, or the notoriously bad or intemperate character of persons visiting the same, or the keeping of the implements or appurtenances usually pertaining to grog shops, tippling shops, or places where intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be prima facie evidence that intoxicating liquors are kept on such premises for the purposes of sale within this state.

SEC. 5. No sale of intoxicating liquors shall be made on Sunday, except by registered pharmacists or assistant registered pharmacists, upon a physician's prescription. And the town council of any town, or the board of aldermen of any city, may prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors in their town or city during certain specified hours of any election day or other public day, and give public and official notice thereof at least twenty-four hours before said time.

Any person who shall be convicted of offering to sell, selling or suffering to be sold by any person, by sample or otherwise, any intoxicating liquor on Sunday except as provided in this section, or during the hours prohibited by the town council or board of aldermen as aforesaid, shall be fined twenty dollars and be imprisoned in the Providence County jail for ten days on the first conviction, and on the second conviction he shall be fined fifty dollars and be imprisoned in the Providence County jail three months: and in case such sale or offer to sell on Sunday or on any prohibited days or hours as aforesaid shall be made or suffered to be made by any person holding a license under the provisions of Chap. 508 of the Public Laws, such license shall be forfeited, and such person shall be disqualified to receive a license for the sale of intoxicating liquors for the period of two years after his conviction.

SEC. 6. The mayor and aldermen of any city or town council of any town, or either member thereof, or the chief of police of any city or town, or any police officer, or any constable specially authorized by said board of aldermen or town council, or any member of the state police, may at any time enter upon the premises of any person licensed or authorized to sell under the provisions of said Chapter 508, to ascertain the manner in which such person conducts his business and to preserve order; and every such chief of police, police officer, constable or member of the state police, shall have the power to arrest, without a warrant, all persons found actively engaged in the premises thus entered in the commission of any offence in violation of any of the provisions of this act or of said chapter 508, and to keep such persons so arrested in custody until they can be brought before some magistrate of the same city or town, having the proper jurisdiction of such offence, to be dealt with according to law; and whenever any person is seen to drink any intoxicating liquor in such premises, or in any part thereof on Sunday, or on other days or hours prohibited under the provisions of this act, shall be prima facie evidence that such liquors were sold and kept for sale by the occupant of such premises or his authorized agent.

SEC. 7. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect on and after the passage thereof.

Mr. Tobey, of Providence, said he was heartily in favor of the act. He believed in a license law, and also that the law should be rigidly enforced. The provisions concerning Sunday sales of liquor were evidently proper and necessary. He had no sympathy for any one who sells liquor on Sunday, and that offence cannot be spoken of with too much severity. The Sunday sales must be stopped, and this act will probably go a long way in stopping them.

After the bill had been adopted by sections, Mr. Dyer, of Johnston, moved that the final vote on the bill as a whole be postponed until tomorrow (Wednesday) at 11.30 A. M. The motion was adopted, and the bill therefore laid on the table until the time set.

Mr. Tobey, of Providence, presented the petition of Henry W. Gardner, George R. Phillips, Gorham P. Pomroy, William S. Slater, George W. Danielson, Henry Lippitt, H. C. Cranston, Samuel A. Nightingale and others, for an act to incorporate the Providence Steam Heating Company. The Company is to be authorized to manufacture and sell steam, and warm and hot water, and to furnish the same as may be required by the inhabitants of Providence for warming and heating stores, dwelling houses, buildings, public and private, for all culinary and other purposes for which the same may be required. The said company be empowered to lay pipes in the streets, etc., of Providence, subject to the control of the City Council. The capital stock to be $100,000. The petition was referred to the committee on corporations.

Mr. Greene, of Exeter, presented the petition of W. H. Arnold and others of Exeter for the prohibition of pigeon shooting. Referred to the Judiciary committee.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House of Representatives met at eleven o'clock, Mr. Speaker Spooner in the chair.

The Speaker called attention to the fact that a subscription paper for the N. Y. Herald Irish Famine Fund had been left with him, and that members so inclined could subscribe in this manner.

Mr. Freeman introduced a petition for an act to incorporate the Pawtucket and Central Falls Steam Heating Company (Holly system). Referred to committee on corporations.

Mr. Fay introduced a similar petition for an act to incorporate the Newport Steam Heating Company. Referred to committee on corporations.

PERSONALS.

......It is said that the Princess Louise has lost a jewel valued at $20,000.

......Rev. Herbert H. Hayden is lecturing on "Circumstantial Evidence."

......Adelina Patti received about seven dollars a minute during the performance of each opera in which she sang in Vienna.

......Rev. Elton G. Guslin, of the Broad Street Christian Church, Westerly, has resigned, the resignation to take effect April 1.

......Mr. John Hodges and wife, of Cambridge, Pa., if they live one year more, will celebrate the 75th anniversary of their wedding.

......Mrs. Julia Ward Howe was the essayist at the Chestnut-street club, Boston, on Monday, and "Representation, and How to Secure It," the subject.

......The ex-Khedive has arranged a grand tour which will embrace Rome, Paris and London. But before setting out he has sent an envoy to the Vatican to ask an audience with the Pope. If granted, this will be one of the most noteworthy meetings in history.

......Mrs. Kirtland, of Chicago, has completed a model for a statue of Oliver P. Morton, to be erected at Indianapolis, representing the war Governor as he appeared ten or fifteen years ago, and it is greatly praised by those who have seen it.

......The first in the second course of Mr. John L. Stoddard's lectures drew an immense audience to Music Hall, Boston, Monday night. The subject was, "Cairo and the Nile." The next lecture will be on "The Castles, Lakes and Mountain Peaks of Europe."

......"It is no secret," says Truth, "that Princess Louise returned to Canada with great reluctance. She complains of her utter isolation there, arising from the want of congenial society, there being few outside her own house with whom she has two ideas in common. The Princess will pay another visit to England in the autumn."

......Ex-Minister Washburne has a gallery of portraits of distinguished men of the day, at the head of which hangs the likeness of the Emperor of Germany, sent to him in honor of his services to German subjects during the Franco-German war. A portrait of Bismarck, by Healy, was ordered by Mr. Washburne, and the same painter executed the likenesses of Thiers and Lord Lyons.

......The daughter of Spotted Tail, a tall, ungainly young woman of 18, is studying in the Government school for Indians at Carlisle Barracks, Pa. She has lately married the half-breed interpreter employed at the barracks, and when sent to do some scrubbing the other day, her lordly husband interfered. His wife was of royal blood, he remarked, the daughter of a chief, and he wanted her to learn only what the white ladies do.

......The Prince of Wales is retrenching his expenditure, which has been cut down one half in each of his residences. The time, however, has come, when the assistance of the Prince has become necessary, not in the serious administration of the Government, but in the entertainment of those who govern. The Queen has opposed this assumption for the last three years, but at length consents to deposit in his hands, if not the globe and sceptre, at all events the visiting list and lord chamberlain's book. The responsibility is not of mere evening receptions and garden parties, but involves the more serious business of banquetings and royal feasts, and the Prince, who has been compelled to reduce his expenditure through heavy debts contracted in this very task, requires a supplement to his income. Although it is known that, in addition to the Queen's immense income, she has laid aside £5,000,000, and could easily afford this her faithful Commons are to be asked to vote it.

A signal-service officer has invented an instrument which shows by dials the kind of weather the wind and atmosphere at the time indicate as most probable, and it is said that one of the instruments is to be placed in the postoffice of every city of the United States.

CURE.

The following letter proves that BRIGHT'S DISEASE, in its worst form, IS CURABLE:

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 25, 1879.

Messrs. H. H. WARNER & CO., Rochester, N. Y.—Gentlemen: Having escaped death from Bright's disease by the use of your Remedy, I feel it a duty, not only to acknowledge my gratitude to you personally, but also to bring my case before the public, and have those who are suffering similarly to judge whether a medicine not prepared by the "regulars" will cure the frightful malady or not.

In the summer of 1872 I was first taken ill, with symptoms which, I was informed, were those of Bright's disease. I went to Marquette, Mich., and called to my aid a physician of noted ability. After remaining a considerable time under his care, I found no improvement; on the contrary, my disease was considerably aggravated. I next placed myself in charge of one of the best physicians in Toledo, O., with no better result. I was then induced to try the skill of an eminent medical man in New York, and remained under his care six months. Finding myself growing steadily weaker, with no abatement of the kidney derangement, I began to despair of ever getting well.

In the summer of 1875 my friends induced me to go abroad, thinking that the sea voyage, together with the superior skill of foreign medical men, might effect a cure. I succeeded in gaining an introduction to the celebrated Dr. Declat of Paris, and remained under his care fifteen months. He used in my case what is known as the carbolic treatment, and then every method which the most scientific men of the profession on the Continent were known to employ. No improvement being apparent, the services of Dr. B., a gentleman of equal eminence, were next solicited. Seven months of careful treatment by this kind gentleman brought me to the beginning of the most aggravated symptoms of the disease. With swollen limbs, disordered liver, impaired digestion and serious irregularities of the heart, I proceeded to Manchester, Eng., and for five months my case baffled the skill of Dr. Roberts, one of the ablest men of his profession in England, and author of a work on diseases of the kidneys. His great knowledge did not avail in my case; and, finally, despairing of any improvement, much less a cure, I returned to my native land in the belief that I must soon die.

When I reached home two physicians were summoned, who, on subjecting samples of the urine to the test of heat and acid, discovered the presence of albumen in large proportion, while the microscope showed numerous casts. All this, together with the despairing look of my physicians, forced the agonizing conviction that death was inevitable. I then dismissed my medical attendants, with the intention of letting nature struggle on unaided to the end; for my confidence in the ability of medical men to cope with disordered kidneys had become, to say the least, greatly lessened. At this time, I weighed myself in the presence of several friends in the wholesale grocery establishment of Emerson & Co., Toledo, O., and turned the scales at 212½ pounds, 67½ pounds more than my ordinary weight when in health; in other words, the tissues of my body were saturated with 67½ pounds, or about 8½ gallons of water.

Finally, while listlessly lingering in pain and anguish, I was informed by a lady residing on Plymouth avenue, Rochester, N. Y., that one Charles Craig of Charlotte had discovered a remedy for Bright's Disease, with which he had cured himself and many others. I immediately repaired to his residence by the lake, and after a treatment of five weeks with the remedy (now called "WARNER'S SAFE KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE"), all my symptoms abated, and I began to feel that I was almost a well man. I returned home, taking with me a quantity of the medicine, and now, although months have elapsed since I took the last dose, I joyfully declare myself absolutely well, both in mind and body.

Should you have occasion in the future to use this letter, you are at liberty to do so, and any one who hesitates to believe the conclusiveness of my statements, is respectfully referred to the following persons, who were aware of the character of my ailment, and the apparent hopelessness of my case: Mme. Le Blanc, 30 Rue Drowoot, Paris; Henri Du Bois, 11 Rue Sicioneries, Paris; Dr. Feicier, Bordeaux, France; Dr. E. Charmaux, Rue Algine and Lucas Vichy, France; M. Jean Gleinie, 51 Quai de la Moika; Bernard Bradshaw, Esq., 3 York Chambers, Adelphi, London; J. W. Long, Esq., London; John H. Wilson, New York; J. O. Beer, Toledo, O.; Thomas Daniels, Toledo, O.; J. Prentice, Toledo, O.

Respectfully yours, CHAS. S. PRENTICE.

L. D. DAVIS, Agent,

Office of the Newport News and Journal.

Newport Daily News, and the Newport Journal.

The Newport Daily News is published every afternoon (Sundays excepted), at the News building, 137 Thames street, by Davis & Pitman.

The Newport Journal is published at the same office every Saturday morning and contains a selection of the best matter in the Daily, including editorial discussions of the topics of the week, literary miscellanies and at least one good story, the latest markets and a complete and comprehensive summary of the news,—local and general. The Journal is a large 32 column paper and contains a large amount of reading matter that is valuable to readers in town or country who desire a good Newport paper, but who do not take a daily from this city.

Complaints regarding the irregular or improper delivery of either paper should be sent to the office at once.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.

The Daily News, $6 per annum, or 12 cents a week, payable to carrier.

The Newport Journal will be sent to any address in the United States, postage paid, for $1 a year. A discount of 50 cents is made when the WHOLE YEAR is paid STRICTLY IN ADVANCE.

These terms are invariable.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Ordinary advertisements, $1 a square, for the first insertion, and 25 cents for each continuance. Ten lines, or less, in this type, make a square. Advertisements in reading matter, are charged for, at 50 per cent. extra and are subject to editorial revision. A discount on these rates is allowed on all advertisements ordered in the Daily for one week or longer. Funeral notices 50 cents each. Yearly advertisers are limited to their immediate business and are allowed twenty-five changes a year. The circulations of the News and Journal being necessarily distinct, an advertisement inserted in both papers will reach entirely different sets of readers. As further inducement for advertisers to use both the News and Journal, a liberal discount on the combined rates is made.

PRINTING.

Connected with the News is a large and well appointed job printing office. All orders for work in this department will be promptly filled, and at reasonable prices. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

The job office has recently been supplied with new type and a new press, especially adapted to fine work. Liberal supplies of choice papers, envelopes and cards always on hand. Prices as low as possible for first class work.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1880.

There is a case of small pox at Norton, Mass.

The expenses of the counting out conspiracy in Maine amount to about $20,000.

A new liquor license law was discussed in the General Assembly yesterday. It is printed elsewhere.

The Marquis of Lorne commends a vote of $100,000, by the House of Commons, for the relief of Ireland.

Six hundred men employed in Steinway's piano factory in New York and fifty at Astoria are on a strike.

By the bursting of the boiler in a steam saw mill in Gorham, N. H., yesterday, five men were killed instantly, and one severely injured.

Petitions for charters for steam heating companies were presented in the General Assembly yesterday from Providence, Newport and Pawtucket.

In Philadelphia some of the best female teachers are getting but $300 a year for their services, while the janitor of one of the schools draws an annual salary of $1,700.

Senator Eaton, of Connecticut, never visits the White House. The Springfield Republican pithily remarks "that there are obvious reasons which make a reception at the White House just now a pretty dry place for the Senator from Connecticut."

The Fish Commissioners of New Hampshire have stocked 100 ponds in that state with black bass, 30 with land-locked salmon, and expect to stock 20 more with this latter fish, as they believe it will prove a more valuable addition to the fishing in the larger and colder lakes, and very rapid growers.

The Emperor William of Germany, on Saturday last, was suddenly seized with giddiness while passing down a flight of stairs at the Berlin Academy of Music, and fell down the staircase. No injuries were sustained beyond severe bruises, but much anxiety is felt as to the Emperor's general health.

Senator Ingalls has been exonerated from the charges of bribery and corruption after the drag-nets have been swept too and fro over Kansas, and $10,000 expended in endeavoring to convict him. These investigations are very expensive, but don't, after all, furnish much electioneering material for the Democrats.

The Fitz-John Porter boom is rapidly abating. The Democrats do not feel like pressing his case in view of the damaging facts which are known to be in possession of his opponents. The results of a debate in influencing the Presidential election is feared and so the subject will be got rid of as quietly as possible.

It must be a delightful thing to belong to the imperial family of Russia about this time. Yesterday an attempt was made to blow up the dining-hall of the Winter Palace, at the dinner hour. A mine underneath was exploded, and a hole made in the floor ten feet long and six wide. Fortunately the family had not yet entered the room, but the explosion killed five soldiers and wounded thirty-five others.

Shepherd Cowley is reported to be pale and nervous now while in attendance at the trial, and not quite as sanguine as at first. District Attorney Phelps began summing up for the prosecution yesterday. The Graphic says he gave in detail the charges against the defendant, and maintained that it was no answer for him to say that he did not intend to do what he did, neither was it a sufficient plea to say that he was without ability to provide for the children, since it was his duty in that case to notify the proper authorities and see that they were cared for. He assumed the care and charge of them and of Louis Victor voluntarily and hence was responsible for them.

We have several times protested against the manifest unfairness of Speaker Randall towards the Greenback Congressman Gen. Weaver. The Boston Journal now says: Speaker Randall succeeded Monday for the fourth time in choking off Mr. Weaver of Iowa, by ruling in favor of another person. The Iowa Greenbacker is doubtless a financial lunatic, but just now he has constitutional rights upon the floor of the House which Speaker Randall has no right to ignore. All that Greenbacker Weaver asks is that the members of the house shall say yes or no to a proposition to issue $500,000,000 additional greenbacks. None but a born idiot or man in his dotage would say yes, and yet Speaker Randall fears that a large number of Democrats will go on record in favor of the proposition. The Speaker's action is, therefore, an indication that he distrusts the intelligence and honesty of his party associates. Certainly he has known them long enough to know their weaknesses.

THE GRANT BOOM WEAKENING.

The evidence accumulates that the third term men are weakening in Pennsylvania. It is now said, while there is no doubt that Don Cameron prefers Grant to any other candidate, there are signs that he stands ready to relinquish him if the opposition to a third term should prove formidable. In a conversation on the subject he is reported to have said that he should not have insisted upon Grant instructions at Harrisburg had not the opposition taken such a shape that any other result would have been interpreted as a personal defeat of himself. He said further that he should not be disposed to press Grant upon the Chicago Convention if it should appear that to do so would involve the risk of serious party divisions. As to what candidate he would favor in case Grant should not be taken he only said that in his opinion it would not be wise to nominate Blaine.

Senator Conkling said that he should not attend the Utica Convention next week unless he was selected as a candidate, and as yet he had received no intimations that he would be chosen. He said there was not the slightest doubt in the world that the convention would endorse Grant, although he believed a desperate effort was being made by the friends of other candidates to secure some representation in the convention. As far as he had ascertained, the people of New York state were almost unanimous in favor of a third term

THE MONROE DOCTRINE.

The so-called Monroe doctrine is well understood to be a theory of our government, which refuses to allow any foreign nationality to obtain a foothold on the American continent. In view of the proposition to build the canal across the isthmus by foreign capital and maintain it by a foreign protectorate attention is just now called afresh to the general subject. "Webb" telegraphs from Washington that the House Republicans are nearly united in their feeling that the Government ought promptly to assert in some plain and emphatic manner the Monroe doctrine in reference to the construction and control of an inter-oceanic canal. The information soon expected from the President in answer to a resolution on the subject will probably furnish the House with the occasion which the majority of its members apparently seek to give new emphasis to the Monroe doctrine. The House select committee is earnestly in favor of such a declaration. Representative Frye of Maine, who is a member of the Inter-Oceanic Committee, is also very earnest in support of this doctrine. He thinks an inter oceanic canal should be built, that the time has come to build it, and that the United States ought to aid in the construction of the canal by guaranteeing bonds issued for that purpose. As to the Monroe doctrine, Mr. Frye says that it has been reaffirmed so many times that the country cannot abandon it as a policy. Jefferson, Cass, Webster and Buchanan, by their declarations on this subject, have made that doctrine a part of our national policy. So much is this the case that Mr. Frye thinks the attempt of any foreign government to establish a protectorate over any of the independent states of this continent or to introduce any policy which would give it a right to interfere with their concerns or to control their destiny, is a measure which the United States should resist by all means in their power. Mr. Frye favors a declaration as specific and emphatic as this: "Inspection, possession, direction and government of any inter-oceanic canal, with its dependencies and appurtenances, to be constructed at Darien, Nicaragua, or elsewhere, by whomsoever built and whatever the nationality of the corporators, will belong to the United States of America and will be exercised by that Government."

ASPHALT SIDEWALKS.

To the Editor of the Daily News:

In your issue of February 11th you noticed a new piece of sidewalk which I have laid on Thames street, near Mill, and I have thought it may be of interest to some of your readers to know something of the material used and the process of manufacture. The piece of walk referred to is composed of blocks eighteen inches square and two inches thick, laid in diamond pattern, with triangular blocks to fill out the angles along the curbstones, bedded upon a sand foundation in the same manner as bricks or flagging. The blocks are manufactured in this city under a patent right owned by me and the materials used are principally refined Trinidad asphaltum and gravel with some other ingredients of a minor character which are put together in the following manner: The asphaltum is subjected to a boiling heat in large kettles holding from 125 to 150 gallons each and when brought to the right temperature the gravel, which has been previously heated and dried, is stirred in together with the other materials in certain proportions and the whole is then boiled until it is ready for casting. No tar is used in the composition. When all is ready it is dipped off into molds, which are square iron frames filled to within two inches of the top with sand. Great care is necessary in pouring in the material not to disturb the sand, as the block is cast surface side down and is reversed when laid on the sidewalk. In the course of an hour the mass becomes cold and we now have a block of the given dimensions, the body of which is solid natural stones, thoroughly cemented together. The durability of asphalt is unquestionable, having been used in many cities of Europe and our own country for pavements, etc., for over half a century, and when used for sidewalks in this manner the public cannot fail to see its advantages. Its superiority over the ordinary brick walk is too obvious to need comment, while the cost is so much less than flagging and the durability so great that it almost takes the lead of sidewalk materials. I may add that these blocks may be cast in any desired shape or size, and the patterns in which they may be laid are almost infinite in variety, the design followed in the piece of walk referred to at the beginning of this paper being one of the plainest.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

ADVERTISEMENTS NEW TODAY.

Opera House—Lotta.
R. S. Aldrich—Groceries.
John B. Pengelley—Cane Seating and Repairing.

—Mr. Donahue has received nearly two hundred subscribers for his book.

—The employes at the Torpedo Station have contributed $23.50 towards the Herald's Relief Fund at Clarke's news depot.

—The concert by Miss Vats will take place in the Opera House on Thursday night, March 4.

—The petitions presented by Senator Burnside in Congress were for lighthouses on Old Gay rock, Wickford, and on Whale rock, near Narragansett Pier.

—The young ladies of the Union Congregational Church will give a leap year antiquarian tea party in the dining rooms of the Hotel Aquidneck tomorrow evening.

—A telegraphic despatch was received in this city this morning stating that Mr. Robert Lennox died in New York last evening. Mr. Lennox formerly passed his summers in Newport.

—Hon. T. M. Seabury in the Senate and Henry J. Spooner (speaker) in the House have been authorized to receive money from the members of the Legislature for the New York Herald's Irish Relief Fund.

—The grocery wagon belonging to J. T. Burdick was considerably damaged this morning by the running away of the horse attached to it. It collided with two other wagons injuring them slightly.

—Two hundred and forty-six persons have been committed to the Providence Reform school since that admirable institution was opened in 1850, from Newport county. Of this number two hundred and eleven were from Newport alone.

—At this season of the year the velocipede in the hands of the small boy is rampant, as a gentleman can testify who received a sudden shock from one of them on Ayrault street a day or two ago. The small boy should remember that pedestrians have sidewalk rights that should be respected.

—A man who is well known to be a perfect master of his business, but is a frequent victim of strong drink, started on a "tare" Monday morning with between thirty and forty dollars in his pocket. Before night he was begging for a drink in one of the low haunts which are so numerous in the city.

—The dandelion item of yesterday brings to the notice of a News reporter the fact that on Sunday last a Newport family had on their dinner table a "mess" of dandelions that were dug in the open air. The plants were taken from a lot near the railroad bridge, where there is nearly enough more for a second dinner.

—A most worthy young man, Mr. Robert A. Benson, died at the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Bernard Benson, on Bellevue avenue last night. The deceased was at his accustomed work on Saturday and his death was, therefore, very unexpected to those not intimately acquainted with him. He had a large number of friends.

—Officer Albro found Mary Lawless, the mother of four children, in a helpless condition on Mann avenue yesterday afternoon from the effects of liquor. It was found necessary to secure the services of an express wagon to take her to the Police Station. She was arraigned before Judge Baker and pleading guilty was fined $5.10 which sum was taken from her hard earnings as an operative at the Perry mill.

CAUCUS.—In response to the call a prohibitory caucus was held at the hall of the Father Matthew Total Abstinence Society. Mr. W. A. Jack, Jr., was chosen chairman, and Mr. B. W. Pearce, secretary. The names of the delegates were as follows: W. B. Swan, B. W. Pearce, Patrick Flanigan, Michael Butler, Michael McCormick, W. A. Jack, Jere McCarthy, J. R. Palmer, Rev. Mr. Van Horne, George H. Kelley, Daniel R. Caswell and T. P. Peckham.

DEN. THOMPSON.—Denman Thompson appeared at the Opera House last evening in the title role of his famous play of Joshua Whitcomb. The attendance was light, which is not to be wondered at in view of the numerous attractions which have appeared at the Opera House of late. The Lenten season and the high price of tickets also had something to do with the receipts of the evening. Everybody was delighted with the bluff, but honest farmer from the Granite state who brought forth no end of applause by his perfect interpretation of the part allotted to him. Cy Prime, Aunt Matilda (Josh's sister), Mrs. Johnson (Tot's mother), Frederick Dolby (a young foppish Englishman), Tot (the street sweeper), Roundy (a boot black), Nellie Primrose (a Boston belle) and Susan Martin (who had a mania for marriage), and other members of the company were well received. It was generally regretted that it was found necessary to shorten the performance. The play is too good to be treated in that manner. The singing by Tot and the death-bed scene of her mother deserve special mention.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

The Grand Lodge of Rhode Island, Knights of Pythias, met in Providence yesterday, and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

Grand Chancellor—William A. Wilson.
Grand Vice Chancellor—George A. Steere.
Grand Prelate—L. L. Chilson.
Grand Keeper of Records and Seal—A. O. Rockwell.
Grand Master of Exchequer—L. E. Davis.

The rumor in regard to the crack in the ceiling of the Assembly Chamber originated with a lot of New York newspaper correspondents who undertook to sell a reporter of the Albany Press. The Albany reporter was so childlike that he swallowed the yarn, and by repeating it, caused it to be telegraphed all over the state.—[Troy Budget.

BOLD HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Mr. George Anthony, of Portsmouth, went up to Fall River yesterday, to transact some business in regard to an estate in which he is interested as administrator. He returned in the last train in the evening, landing at the Coal Mine station, with three thousand dollars in money on his person. It was then quite dark, and he started for his residence, across lots. While getting through some bars on his way, he was struck, by some person in waiting for that purpose, a heavy blow on the head, which knocked him down, and he was immediately robbed of the entire amount in his possession.

Sheriff Crandall, who is Mr. Anthony's brother-in-law, and Capt. Hammond went out to Portsmouth this morning to investigate the matter and to get track of the robber if possible. It was a bold robbery and it is sincerely hoped that the perpetrator will be brought to speedy justice. Later information indicates that three men were concerned in the robbery and that Mr. Anthony was shadowed in Fall River and followed in the cars.

TIVERTON.

Capt. William Brightman, of this town, Isaac Brown and Capt. George Nickerson are having a new fishing steamer built at Hodgsdon's Mills, Me., 120 feet long and 20 feet beam. Her boilers and engine are building at the Atlantic Works at East Boston. She is to be finished in time for the business of the coming season.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor, of New York, is quite a sensation here now. She appeared at both the parties mentioned with more and larger diamonds than I have ever seen any lady wear at one time, and they were not the same jewels on both evenings. It is said that those she wore at the White House, and the necklace of five strands of large black pearls are worth two million dollars. She had very large solitaires on a black velvet ribbon around her throat. The strands of pearls had a big diamond clasp; the bouquet de corsage of diamonds was nearly as large as a tea saucer; her earrings were very long and made of picked stones. In her hair were several large diamond ornaments, and the square neck of her dress was outlined with diamonds, just as less wealthy ladies use glass beads. She also wore diamond bracelets.

Mme. Delfosse, the Boston lady who married the Belgian Minister last winter, has recently returned with him from Europe, and has made her debut in Washington society this week. Last night she wore white satin trimmed with point lace. She had a big diamond pendant attached to a black velvet ribbon, which last was studded with large diamonds. She had a lizard and other designs in diamonds in her hair. Another Boston lady who attracted much admiration was Mrs. Cushing, who wore white satin covered with point lace, and many rare diamonds.

As I mentioned in my last, the soiree at the White House was a "card" reception, to which all the highest officials of our government, few of whom failed to attend, were asked "to meet the diplomatic corps." The decorations of the White House were even handsomer than those at the similar fête of last year, and consisted of tall tropical plants which were grouped through all the parlors and corridors, blooming plants and cut flowers, all arranged in the most tasteful designs, flags draping walls and mirrors, and smilax, which entwined the chandeliers. The effect was beautiful beyond the power of words to convey, especially after the flower lined rooms were filled with superbly dressed ladies and the diplomats in gorgeous court uniforms with jewelled orders.

The President and Mrs. Hayes and all the ladies of the Cabinet families, including Mrs. Devens, who represented her husband's uncle, the Attorney-General, formed the receiving party, and to them the diplomatic corps shortly after eight o'clock (for it was as punctual an entertainment as a state dinner, the hours being from eight to eleven), paid their respects. Secretary Evarts, who had previously brought in Mrs. Astor with his own family, re-entered with Lady Thornton. Sir Edward Thornton came next with Miss Kellogg, of Massachusetts. The Misses Thornton and the other ladies and gentlemen of the British Legation followed, and the other foreign legations came in the order of precedence accorded them from the length of time the ministers have served here in that capacity.

I have seen most of the handsomest entertainments given here in the last ten years and also some very elegant ones in other cities, but I never saw on one occasion so many exceptionally elegant dresses and valuable jewels as at the White House. At least two hundred ladies wore toilets and jewels which, if seen separately, would have been regarded as worthy special description.

Mrs. Hayes wore a thick white satin wrought in threads of gold representing Marshal Neil rosebuds. It was mingled with plain white satin, and embroidered on the sides of the skirt in gold threads. The waist was cut V shape in front, and filled in with lace. The sleeves were of Duchesse lace and embroidery in pearl beads, but made over satin so as not to show the arms. Nearly all the foreign ladies wore low-neck dresses, and a few were so very decolletee and seemed to have so slight a hold on the shoulders, having no sleeves, as to cause wonder as to how the waists were kept from slipping off altogether. The Baroness Blanc wore a rich silk in which red, orange and white were tastefully mingled. These are, I think, the national colors of Italy. She also wore point lace and numerous diamond ornaments.

The ladies of the diplomatic corps assisted Mrs. Hayes in receiving for an hour or more, and then the ladies and gentlemen enjoyed promenading through the parlors, halls and conservatories which were lighted. The Marine Band played throughout the evening. The supper, which consisted of every delicacy,—wine only excepted,—was served in the state dining-room and also in the family dining-room, the tables being equally beautiful in both. No finer spectacles of a similar kind could be presented than these tables showed, with their choice designs in flowers, candied fruits and ices. There was a swan, life size, made of white flowers, and floral candelabra containing wax candles, which were lighted. Gen. Washington was represented in white and colored ices; but his natural reserve thawed and his dignity melted under the heat of the gas and candles. The pyramids of confectionery had the U. S. coat of arms and shield in colors.

So large was the attendance that the carriages were in line for several squares outside the grounds, and there was much delay in arriving after eight o'clock, so that some did not reach the parlors until after ten o'clock, nor could all get away before midnight. Very few prominent Senators or Representatives or Justices of the Supreme Court were absent. Nearly all the officers of the army and navy, of the highest rank, who were in the city were present, and all wore full dress uniforms. As the invitations were issued only to gentlemen, who were each invited "with the ladies of his family," the latter phrase was very freely construed by many, and some took twelve to their parties, and even included uninvited gentlemen among "the ladies of their families." Not so Delegate Cannon, the Mormon from Utah, who, although his wife was too ill to attend, took no one with him but his two little daughters, who are very pretty children, and were beautifully and suitably dressed.—[Miss Grundy in Boston Gazette.

GLEANINGS AND GOSSIP.

Every male member of the Vanderbilt family now owns a house or property on Fifth avenue, New York.

Pastors as a general thing don't accept calls at reduced salaries. Their fields of usefulness don't widen in that direction.

It is reported that the Old Colony railroad has abandoned its intention of running a branch road from its main line to Nantasket Beach.

Messrs. Tompkins & Hill propose giving a monster entertainment on Sunday evening next, at the Boston Theatre, the entire receipts for which will be added to the fund for the relief of the famine-stricken people of Ireland.

Really men have no confidence in their wives, nowadays. Here is Mr. Astor who sends two detectives "dressed as gentlemen" to dog the footsteps of his wife for fear she will run off with that million dollars worth of diamonds with which she has been blinding Washington society. Uneasy lies the head that wears carbon in the form of jewels.—[Boston Courier.

Saturday the will of the late Mr. Borie was put to probate in Philadelphia, and a codicil hitherto unpublished was found attached to it, in these words: "To General O. E. Babcock, $1,200 per annum until that sum shall have reached the sum of $5,000, including $1,000 I have paid him in 1876, and deducting such other amounts as I may hereafter pay him prior to my decease."

In the London Times newspaper office, one of Edison's loud speaking telephones is to be used. The reporter in Parliament instead of going with his shorthand notes to the office and reading them to copyists, reads them before the telephone, thus saving the time of travel, while at the other end of the line in the office the copyist hears it as well as if the shorthand writer was with him.

It is understood that there was a little meeting last week, over in the Back Bay district, at which a number of good Episcopalian girls conferred upon the question of observing Lent. It was decided that going to the opera is not breaking Lent "because that is music you know, and music is a part of one's education." It was also decided that a pious young lady may go to skating parties but not to germans, and she may go to the theatre once a week—provided she has been to hear Phillips Brooks's instruction in the afternoon.—[Boston Courier.

Two brothers belonging to one of our oldest families, says the Hour, living some hundred miles from New York, find continuous country life rather irksome. As one or the other of them is obliged to be on the estate, they take their turns in coming down to the city for a little recreation. The arrangement works so regularly that it was remarked to one of them the other day, that he and his brother were like two buckets in a well, one always going up and the other going down. "Yes," replied Tom, "and also like a well-bucket, the one going up is always full."

A neat way to combine business with pleasure is to do as did Mr. Saxton, of Cleveland, Ohio. He invited a large company to witness some private theatricals at his house, and after the performance the guests were requested to remain in their seats, when the curtain was rung up, and the amazing tableau was presented of a bridal party—the granddaughter of the host being the "leading lady"—standing beneath a marriage bell of flowers. The Episcopal service was duly read, and then the bride added a fresh novelty to the scene by repeating a poem entitled "The Marriage Wreath."

Diplomacy has put an end to one of the abuses of the court balls in Berlin. Cavalry officers used to stuff their pockets full of sweetmeats, so that the dishes on the buffet emptied themselves with awful rapidity. No strong measures were resorted to, and no offensive notice was stuck upon the wall begging noble guests to eat their fill but not to carry anything off. Macaroons, caramels and pralines were replaced by the creamiest of meringues, the wettest of tipsy cakes, the "squashiest" of patties, each and all delicacies of the most seductive toothsomeness, but provokingly ill-adapted to transport except in the stomach. Prince Hohenlohe, the high steward, has done this.

PORTSMOUTH.

ANOTHER VETERAN GONE.—On Thursday morning Edward Coggeshall, Esq., departed this life in the 70th year of his age. He was a native of this town, the son of Simeon and Phebe Coggeshall, and was fifth of a family of nine children—five brothers and four sisters. Three sisters survive him. His death is the third of the brothers that have died in a little more than a year. John H. died Feb. 7th, and Albert, March 1st, 1879. It is an unfrequent occurrence for three brothers living within a mile of each other, to arrive at their age and die so near together. Mr. Coggeshall has always been in robust health, and had followed his trade, which was that of a carpenter, until two or three years since, when disease fastened upon him and he was obliged to give up labor. More recently a complication of disorders appeared, which ended his career. He was an active politician, an ardent Republican, and had filled several important positions of trust and honor in his town and state. He was twice chosen to represent the town in the General Assembly. June 4th, 1855, he was elected moderator of the town meeting, and was re-elected to the same position, with one year's exception, until 1878. He discharged the arduous duties of this office with marked ability and with general satisfaction to his townsmen.

NEW MAGAZINES.

THE ATLANTIC for March opens with the second installment of Reminiscences of Washington including much personal and social as well as political anecdote concerning the four years of John Quincy Adams's administration. Francis H. Underwood has an engaging account of Egypt under the Pharaohs. Richard Grant White writes of English in England. Mr. Howells's serial, The Undiscovered Country, grows in interest. Charles Dudley Warner contributes a biographical and critical essay on Washington Irving. There are two excellent short stories, Accidentally Overheard, by Horace E. Scudder, and Hannah Dawston's Child, by Lucy Lee Pleasants. There are poems by T. B. Aldrich, Miss Sarah O. Jewett, the author of Deephaven, Celia Thaxter, Oscar Laighton, and Louisa Chandler Moulton. Several noteworthy new books are reviewed, and a diversified Contributors' Club completes a very good number.

HARPER'S for March has for an opening paper an article by J. J. Jarvis on The New School of Italian Painting and Sculpture, illustrated with engravings of paintings and of statuary. Mr. J. B. Matthew's paper is Pinafore's Predecessor, and is illustrated with portraits of Gay and Sheridan. Madame Moscheles, widow of the celebrated player and composer, relates a humorous musical adventure, experienced by herself and her husband many years ago in Thuringia. The story is illustrated by Abbey. C. C. Coffin contributes a description of harvesting on the larger farms in Dakota, handsomely illustrated. J. E. Cloud describes and illustrates an Irish wake. Mr. Hayes's Colorado papers are concluded in this number. St. Valentine's Day is remembered in a poem by Philip O. Sullivan, with two illustrations. Longfellow's new poem is called The Sifting of Peter. Paul Hayne contributes Snow-Messengers. Mrs. Frances L. Mace contributes Isis, and James T. Fields some blank verse. Rose Terry Cooke has a short story, Miss Beulah's Bonnet, and Z. B. Gustafson a Swedish romance. The concluding paper, by Dr. Samuel Sexton, a distinguished aurist, on The Preservation of Hearing, deserves to be carefully read. The editorial departments furnish some of the most entertaining matter in the number.

OUR BURGLAR.

The New Bedford Standard of Tuesday evening says: About a week ago Chief of Police Allen visited Boston and procured the shoes worn by Adolph Bender alias Pender, who was recently arrested in that city for a burglary committed in a house in Newport. The shoes were brought to this city and identified as the ones stolen by the person who broke into Lawrence Grinnell's house in this city some weeks since, and which he took in exchange for an old pair left. By direction of Chief Allen, Deputy Chief Cornish went to Newport yesterday, taking with him the gloves which the burglar left in Mr. Grinnell's house on the night of the robbery. The gloves were identified in Newport as those stolen from the house of the rector of Emmanuel Church in that city early in the winter. Pender, though generally reticent, has made some partial admissions which serve to fix upon him the ownership of a pair of gloves and a pocket knife found in Mr. Swift's house. He is a German, who arrived in New York something more than three years ago. The police authorities have been busy at work on these cases ever since they occurred. They are gratified at the capture of the thief, and that they have been able to fix the crime upon him, and will now turn their efforts to securing the stolen property if possible.

The Two Orphans "Resurgam" has been placed before the public by the Union Square Combination with an array of talent identified with success. Miss Lillie Eldridge as "Louise," and Laura Linden as "Henriette," and a cast of characters which has seldom been surpassed. Great care has been taken in selecting artists of known ability, capable of giving realistic effect to the different phases of life in this, one of the greatest dramas of modern times. This combination has wisely considered the interest of the play-going public, and reduced the prices so that they are within reach of all. Admission twenty-five (25) and thirty-five (35) cents, reserved seats fifty (50) cents, an inducement rarely offered by so strong a company.

The manager of the Washington, Pa., Crematory should distribute his circulars among the Democratic party.—[New York Commercial Advertiser.] So they'll know what to do with the Republican corpse.—[Boston Post.

Leap Year. She—Are you engaged for the German? He (with eagerness)—No, I am not. She (with pity)—Oh, that's too bad! Good evening. See you later.—[Harvard Lampoon.

ARTOTYPE!

J. A. WILLIAMS, the original, is ready to take and fill orders for this style of pictures at his room, No. 1 Touro block, Bellevue avenue, Newport, R. I. The Artotype process is good enough to satisfy the most exacting and will for this reason receive opposition from none but those who will have lost all opportunity to benefit by its immense advantage. The Artotypes are far superior to Silver Prints or old style Photo made from the same negative with the additional merit of being as permanent as a steel engraving. Artotype is a name given by the proprietor of a patent for printing by means of a process in fatty inks and in colored inks. The price of photo in silver I will take for about one half of the old process or less than any other Photographer charges for the same style of work. J. A. W. f5

GRANT IN JERUSALEM.

BY REV. M. TRAFTON, D. D.

["No; no ovation for me in this city where my Saviour was crucified."—Gen. Grant.]

Speak not to me of banquets, of rich viands and red wine,
In this old sacred city, where was slain the Son divine;
No homage to me offer—to me, a sinful man—
Here where my Saviour suffered and wrought out the wondrous plan.

Oh, what is human prowess on fields of mortal strife?
Or what the cause secured alone by sacrifice of life?
The conflicts of the ages are o'ershadowed by that hour,
When here the Son of God assailed alone Death's tyrant power.

I have fought a hundred battles midst sulphurous clouds and flame,
When death shots smote the air as smites the tempest's sleet and rain;
But never such a conflict has the sun e'er blushed to see,
As that in yonder garden which my Saviour fought for me.

"A name?" Ah, yes, I know. I've heard the ringing, wild "hurrahs,"
When out from battle clouds emerged the glorious stripes and stars;
But here I see another crowd—I see the Victim pale;
The brutal cry, "Away with Him!" borne on the evening gale.

I've seen the serried columns pressing up the dizzy height,
Stern on through volleying thunders and death-hail's thickest flight;
'Twas not a time for weeping, nor e'en a thought of loss;
Now on yon hill, through tears, I see Him sink beneath His cross.

I've heard the shout of triumph of the millions on that day
When the last death-shot had echoed and the war-clouds rolled away;
But here I bow in anguish, as I hear that piercing cry,
"It is finished!" Ah, my Saviour then bows His head to die!

Then not to me a sinner, yet a sinner saved by grace,
By whose stripes I am healed, be honors in this place;
Oh, here be no name honored on roll which He has trod
But that above all others—the glorious Son of God!

The Norwich Bulletin says that a painter engaged in painting the wall of a store on Main street on Tuesday was occupied until after dark with a part of his job, and the gas was lighted to enable him to finish it. The gaslight caused the shadow of a stove pipe to fall on the wall in the centre of his work; and the painter thought it was a dark spot in the paint, and worked industriously for more than an hour trying to paint out the shadow, putting on five coats of print, to the amusement of the proprietor of the store. At last the painter recognized the situation, picked up his brushes in some haste and left.

Gentle Women

Who want glossy, luxuriant and wavy tresses of abundant, beautiful Hair must use LYON'S KATHAIRON. This elegant, cheap article always makes the Hair grow freely and fast, keeps it from falling out, arrests and cures grayness, removes dandruff and itching, makes the Hair strong, giving it a curling tendency and keeping it in any desired position. Beautiful, healthy Hair is the sure result of using Kathairon.

KIDNEY-WORT
THE ONLY MEDICINE
That Acts at the Same Time on
THE LIVER, THE BOWELS, and the KIDNEYS.
These great organs are the natural cleansers of the system. If they work well, health will be perfect; if they become clogged, dreadful diseases are sure to follow with TERRIBLE SUFFERING.
Biliousness, Headache, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Constipation and Piles, or Kidney Complaints, Gravel, Diabetes, Sediment in the Urine, Milky or Ropy Urine; or Rheumatic Pains and Aches, are developed because the blood is poisoned with the humors that should have been expelled naturally.
will restore the healthy action and all these destroying evils will be banished; neglect them and you will live but to suffer.
[illegible]
Why suffer longer from the torment of an aching back?
Why bear such distress from Constipation and Piles?
Why be so fearful because of disordered urine?
KIDNEY-WORT will cure you. Try a package at once and be satisfied.

A WORD TO THOSE WHO USE POROUS PLASTERS.
It is a universally acknowledged fact that
BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTERS ARE SUPERIOR TO ALL OTHERS.
The great demand for them has caused a number of unscrupulous parties to make and sell worthless imitations under similar sounding names. As the market is flooded with inferior plasters selling at any price it is important for the consumer to know which is the best. It is well known that some of the cheap plasters have been examined and found to contain injurious ingredients which make them dangerous to use, causing paralysis and other diseases. THE JOURNAL
—IS A—
FIRST-CLASS
Weekly Family Newspaper,
CONTAINING
ALL THE GENERAL NEWS OF THE WEEK, AMOUNTING TO
Twenty Five Columns of Matter,
Ten to Fifteen Columns
OF WHICH ARE OF
Special Local Interest.
THE CONTENTS ARE GATHERED FROM THE COLUMNS OF THE DAILY NEWS,
AND CAREFULLY ARRANGED WITH SPECIAL REGARD TO THE WANTS OF READERS IN CITY OR COUNTRY WHO WANT A
GOOD NEWPORT PAPER
BUT WHO DO NOT TAKE A DAILY FROM THIS CITY.

Let the JOURNAL be compared with any other weekly paper published in the south part of the state and its superiority in the quantity and quality of its contents, particularly in its news departments, will be at once seen. In it are found every week all the minor matters of local news and reports of entertainments, meetings, celebrations, etc., in Newport and vicinity that in fullness and excellence will compare favorably with reports in any other local paper. We state not so much an opinion as a fact, that will become apparent to any disinterested person who compares it with other papers, when we say that, for all residents of Newport county and all persons who have moved out of the county but wish to keep posted regarding affairs at their old home, the best paper without exception is the
NEWPORT JOURNAL.
